

The image displays ten architectural section drawings of a building, arranged in five pairs. Each pair represents a different section (Sezione) of the building, showing the vertical arrangement of rooms and their levels. The sections are labeled as follows:

- Sezione E-2 and Sezione E-1: Show a vertical stack of rooms labeled C, B, A, L, G, F, G. Levels range from 150.00 to 170.00.
- Sezione D-2 and Sezione D-1: Show a vertical stack of rooms labeled A, B, C, D, B, D, A, C, G, F, H. Levels range from 150.00 to 170.00.
- Sezione C-2 and Sezione C-1: Show a vertical stack of rooms labeled B, D, A, C, G, F, H, G, F. Levels range from 150.00 to 170.00.
- Sezione B-2 and Sezione B-1: Show a vertical stack of rooms labeled C, A, B, L, G, F, G. Levels range from 150.00 to 170.00.
- Sezione A-2 and Sezione A-1: Show a vertical stack of rooms labeled B, C, D, B, D, A, C, G, F, H, G. Levels range from 150.00 to 170.00.

Each section drawing includes a vertical scale on the left side, indicating the floor levels (150.00, 170.00, 150.00, 170.00, 150.00, 170.00, 150.00, 170.00, 150.00, 170.00, 150.00, 170.00). The rooms are color-coded: light blue for rooms A, B, C, D; light green for rooms L, G, F; and light yellow for rooms H. The drawings show the structural elements of the building, including walls, floors, and roofs.

