

A 3D perspective diagram of a building structure. A red, semi-transparent rectangular volume is highlighted within the building, labeled with a red 'H'. This volume is positioned in the upper right portion of the building. To the left of this volume, there is a circular, dome-like structure. The building's walls and roof are shown with dashed lines to indicate internal or hidden parts. The entire diagram is enclosed in a rectangular frame.
